

Chief's Bio – Chief Robert A. Rizzi, Jr.

Chief Rizzi has 25 years of law enforcement experience. He started his career as a part-time dispatcher with the Livingston Police Department. He moved into a patrolmen's position in 1984 and he has been with the Troy Police Department since 1986. He has moved through the ranks with his first promotion to Corporal in 1990. He then was promoted to Sergeant in 1996 and then again to Lieutenant in 1998. Finally, he was promoted to Captain in 2003 before being appointed to Chief of Police on October 15th, 2007.

Chief Rizzi is a graduate of the Belleville Area College Police Academy. He has accomplished many prestigious certifications throughout his career. Among his recognitions, he received an Accommodation for Valor after entering a burning house and rescuing an 11 year old autistic child.

Chief Rizzi has a 19 year old daughter, Brittany, and resides with his wife DeAnn within the City of Troy.

